Weekly Update

Spring is flying by. We are just over 2 weeks away from Memorial Day. The fuel dock is Open 7-days a week and the Marina vendors are open and have watercraft ready to go.

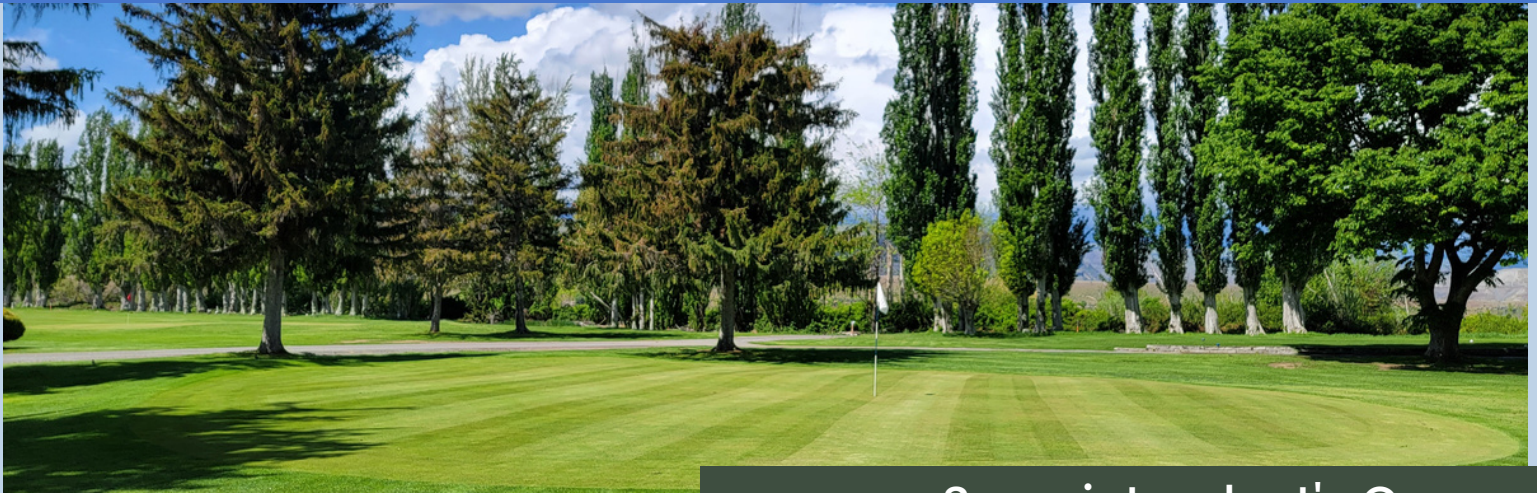

The Quincy Valley Chamber of Commerce is hosting a Pikeminnow Fishing Derby this weekend, open to anyone.

Over the next 2-weeks, you will see some work along the trail. First, there will be a tree contractor removing & topping some problem trees that have created root issues in the trail. And the second week, there will be a paving contractor, paving over the roots in the trail.

Superintendent's Corner

Hello Golfers,

As most of you have heard by now, Grant PUD is working on their 5-year assessment of the Golf Course. PUD representatives have been attending HOA meetings this Spring to update and answer any questions.

The CWMG staff is receiving a lot of questions in the Pro Shop regarding the golf course. Just an FYI, we have been given the same information that has been handed out at the HOA meetings. The best source of information is to reach out to your HOA President or talk with Shannon Lowry at Grant PUD, her information was given out at these meetings.

On another note, just a reminder as we get into the busy season, if we could help each other be good stewards of the Golf Course. Please stop by the office and clock-in your rounds, they all matter.

Thank you!
